

Needs List

Positive Tomorrows is Oklahoma City's only school specifically serving homeless children. We help remove the barriers unique to a homeless child's life to make learning possible, such as meeting basic needs like food, clothing, school supplies and personal care items. It is also important to help homeless families make the changes they need to stabilize their lives. You can help provide a chance at a better life by providing the following supplies to help our students, families, teachers and school:

Student Clothing
