My favorite thing about Positive Tomorrows is being able to talk to anybody and they won't judge you. Everybody is just like you. They all went through the same or similar situations.

This year I got to have a My Little Pony party for my birthday! Everything was pink, and my cake was really pretty!

Who We Are

Positive Tomorrows is Oklahoma's only elementary school and social service agency specifically for children and families experiencing homelessness. We empower students and families to succeed, and we do it in three main ways:

1. By breaking down barriers to learning like hunger, lack of basic necessities, medical care, and transportation
2. By supporting families so they can increase their income, employment and housing
3. By providing a differentiated, trauma-informed education to every student, complete with enriching, extracurricular opportunities

Students at Positive Tomorrows typically live with their families in local shelters, motels, cars, and sometimes even abandoned buildings.

Students often come to us with empty tummies, without coats on cold days, or wearing shoes several sizes too small. Our families are impacted by addiction, incarceration, domestic violence, mental illness, and trauma.

But these situations do not define them.

At Positive Tomorrows, every child has the chance to succeed. We provide coats and shoes and counseling for students who are traumatized. We help parents rebuild lives, heal families, and become stable and self-sufficient. We give children and families hope that tomorrow will be better.

We believe every child deserves a quality education, regardless of their situation at home. We believe that teaching integrity, creativity, and hope is just as important as teaching reading, math, and science. We know that education is the most powerful tool to combat poverty.

It is only with the support of a generous community that we continue to keep our doors open to these little ones and their families. As we prepare to open new classes and enroll more students, we are grateful for the donors, volunteers, and friends who have helped us build a strong foundation. On behalf of our students, families, and staff, thank you for making brighter futures possible for some of our community's most vulnerable little ones.

I love everything about summer break camp. Going to the swimming pool and being able to swim in the deep end was my favorite.
-Brandon, 3rd grade

By the Numbers

104 students served

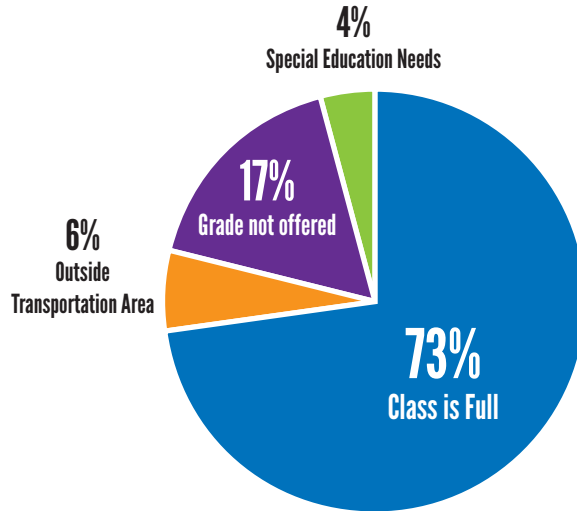

127 students turned away

Average daily attendance: 94%

Days of school: 126

Median length of stay: 124 days

Why are students turned away?

There are over 27,000 homeless students in the state of Oklahoma.

*Data provided by the Institute for Children, Poverty and Homelessness

There are over 6,000
homeless children in Oklahoma City alone.

*Data provided by Oklahoma City Public Schools and Putnam City Schools.

Student Demographics

What is couch homelessness?

Being couch homeless doesn't always mean sleeping on a couch. These students call a different place home every night. They may double up with other families in a shared dwelling with makeshift sleeping arrangements. They may bounce around unsafe motels or even spend nights in the family vehicle.

This category is often the most unstable situation for a student.

Student Housing

I really like the new school because I can run and play outside and do fun things in the gym. My new class is so awesome, and I think I can learn better here, too.

-Hunter, Kindergarten

Evaluating our Program

Positive Tomorrows assesses students using a program called the Measures of Academic Progress Assessment Program (MAPs), which focuses on individual student growth.

MAPs assessments are designed to be given three times during the year for continuing students and upon entry and withdrawal for students only here a short time. Because enrollment fluctuates considerably at Positive Tomorrows, not all students can be assessed more than once, due to their length of stay.

Interpreting Results:

In MAPs, improvement is measured in Rausch Units, or RITs. RIT scores allow students to be accurately measured regardless of their grade level. The RIT scale uses equal intervals, and it has the same meaning regardless of grade level, so the RIT scale spans grades.

In order to evaluate RIT scores within a context, RIT Scale Norms have been developed that show what students in various grades are achieving nationally. RIT Scale Norms are shaded in the corresponding grade level colors on the following graphs. The average Positive Tomorrows student RIT score growth is represented by a colored line for each grade.

Academic Improvement: Kindergarten - 2nd Grade

K - 2nd Grade Reading Growth

K - 2nd Grade Math Growth

Mobility and Tracking Progress

The 2019-20 school year at Positive Tomorrows served fewer students than the previous year due to the average length of time a student was enrolled rising from 84 to 124 days.

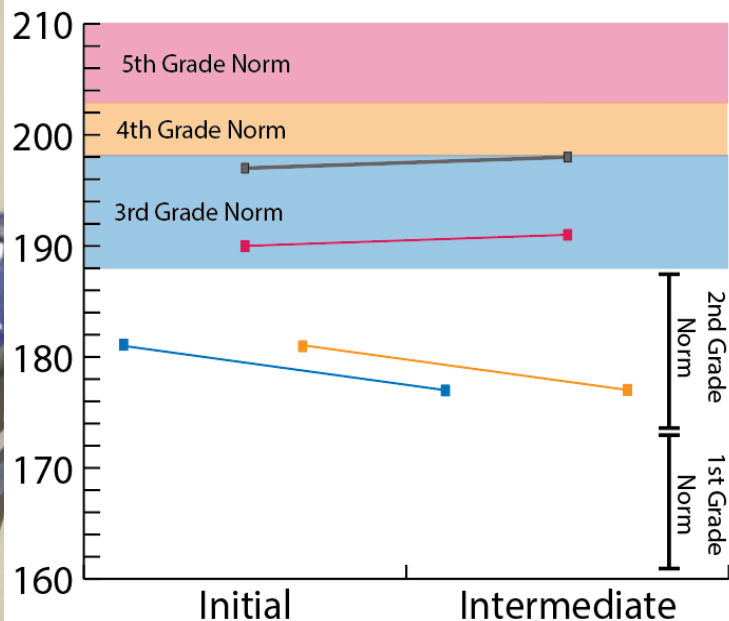

Through partnerships and exposure to new resources, we were able to help more families maintain housing stability and locate funding for emergency and rehousing expenses. Families on the cusp of regression, whether due to a crisis or upfront expenses for new housing, were able to see these potential barriers through to the other side and continue their path to self-sufficiency.

We believe these changes resulted in students staying with us longer, which would ordinarily allow us to more accurately assess academic performance throughout the whole year.

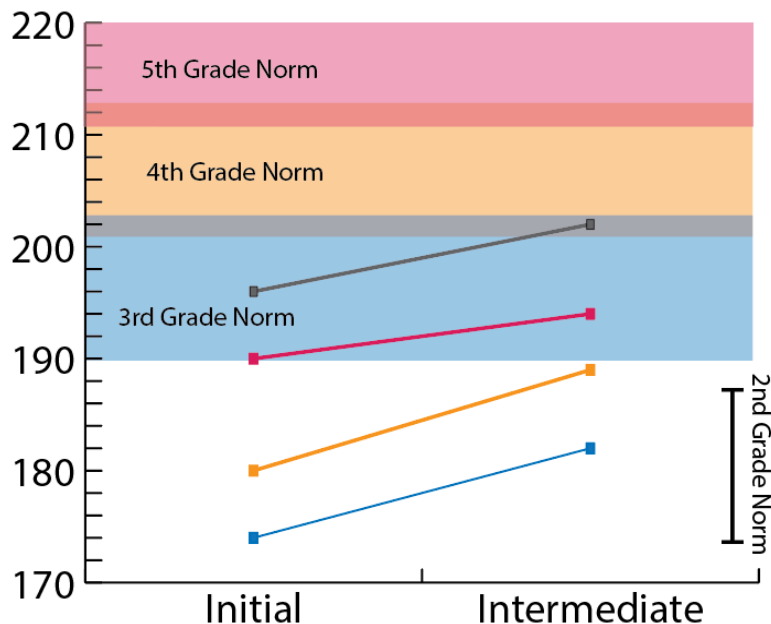

In a typical year, students are assessed three times to measure growth. Because COVID forced schools to close their doors in March, we were unable to administer the final test of the year. This year's data sets contain initial and intermediate test scores only.

Academic Improvement: 3rd - 6th Grade

3-6th Grade Reading Growth

3-6th Grade Math Growth

—■— 3rd Grade —■— 4th Grade —■— 5th Grade —■— 6th Grade

how you can help

At Positive Tomorrows, we fill our clothing closet with new, donated coats, clothing, shoes, and hygiene items so that we can immediately meet the needs of our students.

Help us stock our closet by viewing our needs list online at www.positivetomorrow.org.

Looking Ahead

Nobody could have predicted how 2020 would turn. COVID had a drastic impact on schools and ultimately resulted in Positive Tomorrows ending the in-person school year early and rapidly shifting to a distance learning model after Spring Break.

We knew the homeless students we serve wouldn't have the resources necessary to thrive in a virtual environment, and the well-being and safety of our students and families was top of mind. During the shutdown, it was all hands on deck to serve our families. Students were issued Chromebooks and WiFi hotspots. Teachers delivered lessons on driveways and in front of motels. Classes set up Facebook groups to stay in touch with parents and make sure no one fell off of our radar. Mentors became pen pals. Caseworkers distributed 297 hygiene bags, 324 boxes of cleaning supplies and 908 food boxes.

Perhaps more than ever, our families relied on the stability that Positive Tomorrows provides. To all of the donors, volunteers and friends who made it possible for us to quickly pivot and respond to the needs of our students and families – thank you.

Looking ahead, we're grateful to be settled in to our new facility. Its size and layout make it possible to spread out students and provide plenty of options for safely schooling in-person, something that simply would not have been possible at our former location.

Operating dollars are more important than ever as we continue to respond to the needs of our school community in the midst of an unpredictable pandemic. We're committed to providing a safe environment for children to learn and families to thrive, but it can't be done without continued community support.
