

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: McKalyn Danner, 405-834-4344

mdanner@positivetomorrow.org

Cork & Canvas Event Will Support Families Experiencing Homelessness

Proceeds to benefit Positive Tomorrows

OKLAHOMA CITY (February 24, 2025) – Tickets are on sale now for Positive Tomorrows’ annual Cork & Canvas fundraiser. The event will be held from 6 – 9 p.m. Thursday, April 10, at Positive Tomorrows’ school building in Oklahoma City. The event will feature hors d’oeuvres, desserts, wine pairings, and signature cocktails.

The evening will also feature both silent and live auctions full of unique experiences, memorabilia, dining opportunities, and more. The event’s highlight is original artwork created by the students at Positive Tomorrows, Oklahoma’s only school designed for families experiencing homelessness.

Tickets are $75 and include unlimited food and drinks. Attendees must be 21 or older, and tickets must be purchased in advance at <https://www.positivetomorrow.org/events>

- Who: Over 650 philanthropic community attendees
Margaret Creighton, President and CEO of Positive Tomorrows
Positive Tomorrows staff, board and volunteers
- What: Wine pairings, hors d’oeuvres, and silent and live auctions, plus artwork created by students at Positive Tomorrows
- When: 6:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m. Thursday, April 10
- Where: Positive Tomorrows, Oklahoma City (Address provided upon registration)

###

About Positive Tomorrows Positive Tomorrows is Oklahoma’s only private, tuition-free school and social service agency specifically serving children and families experiencing homelessness. More than 130 students from Early Head Start to 7th grade receive a quality, trauma-informed education each year while their parents get the support they need to create more stability for their families. Positive Tomorrows is a United Way Partner Agency, an Oklahoma A+ Demonstration School, and an accredited School of Distinction with the Cognia Global Commission. To learn more, visit www.positivetomorrow.org.