

Positive Tomorrows Job Description

Position Title: Half Time Title I Reading/Math Teacher for Grades 3-6

Department: Education

Reports To: Principal/Director of Education

Positive Tomorrows is hiring a half-time reading/math interventionist who is well versed in the Science of Reading.

SUMMARY: The teacher will develop lesson plans and work with at-risk students to help them master reading, language and math skills. This includes pre-teaching or reteaching of math concepts and vocabulary words. Teacher will work with students either one-on-one or in small groups of no more than 3.

CERTIFICATION: Elementary Education and/or Reading Specialist; meets Highly Qualified Status

ESSENTIAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

Trauma sensitive instruction to small groups or one-on-one for 30 minutes at a time

Implements all components of Science of Reading to accelerate growth in reading

Collaborates with classroom teacher to develop individualized instructional programs for students

Works with the classroom teachers to develop a schedule for delivery of instruction

Monitors and records student progress

SKILLS, KNOWLEDGE AND ABILITIES REQUIRED:

Skills to organize and manage multiple tasks

Knowledge of the reading process and how to teach it

Excellent math skills and the ability to teach math

Effective oral and written communication skills

Ability to develop creative solutions

Patience and flexibility

This position is funded through the Title I program from OKCPS